IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
HOUSTON DIVISION

IN RE:	§
ABLE MANUFACTURING &	§	CASE NO. 03-37568-H2-11
WHOLESALE GARAGE DOOR CO.	§

ORDER TERMINATING COMPLEX CASE DESIGNATION,
TERMINATING INITIAL COMPLEX ORDER (Doc. # 30),
AND REQUIRING COMPLIANCE WITH LOCAL RULES

This case was classified as a Complex Case administered under the General Order of this Court applicable to Complex Chapter 11 Cases. However, the Court concludes that complex case designation is no longer necessary.

Therefore, the Initial Order for Complex Chapter 11 Case, docket # 30, entered on May 30, 2003, is hereby terminated. The provisions for designated Hearing Days, for the movant to notice hearings for designated times, and the other provisions of the Initial Order shall no longer apply. This case shall henceforth be governed by the local rules applicable to cases that have not been designated as complex cases.

The Clerk shall delete this case from the applicable pages of the Court's internet website dealing with Complex Chapter 11 cases, except that this order shall be published on the website (in lieu of prior postings) for a period of 60 days.

SIGNED January 14, 2004
